

Quotes

An Electric Six-esque slice of sinewy electro-pop
(Venue Magazine)

if it is possible to be 'Retro Original', this is what it is.
(Kevin – Bristol Rocks)

Red Light Go write very catchy sing-along choruses, especially Was It you and the almost punky Writing On The Wall, and their breeziness is quite infectious
(KS - Evening Post)

an eccentric pop fashion that hints towards Numan and Depeche Mode, an energetic edginess in their sound that makes them well worth a listen.
(The Mag)

Hard hitting hooky synth pop with the emphasis on their catchy songs
(CD Baby)

Sigue Sigue Sputnik and Billy Idol starting an impromptu jam down some boozier
(Whisperin and Hollerin)

A melt pot of Gary Numan and Marc Almond
(Moles Club - Bath)

Fresh electro pop rock straight from the early eighties, transported into the 21st century with great energy
(CD Baby)

Target Audience

Age Groups

-teens – emo kids who listen to gothic rock music

Fall Out Boy, Funeral for a Friend, My Chemical Romance, Lost Prophets

- 20 somethings who listen to the new breed of indie – Killers, Bravery, Kaisers, Bloc Party, Orson et al

– 30 and 40 something' who grew up listening to Duran Duran , Depeche Mode, Adam and the Ants, Sex Pistols, Bowie and anyone who appreciates catchy guitar orientated popular music

Radio Stations

– Radio1, Radio 2, Radio 6, Virgin, Xfm

Magazines

– NME, Q, Kerrang, Nuts, FHM